About Us

Oaye Luta Okolakiciye (Moving Forward in a Sacred Way) is a Lakota cultural community-based substance abuse, addiction, behavioral health management, and everyday life issues and concerns resource program. We are a nonprofit 501c3 organization that promotes healing by providing continuum substance abuse prevention, intervention, and recovery education; reconnecting inherent cultural potential, while instilling hope, promoting wellness and revitalizing cultural identity. We refer to cultural ceremony protocol for guidance and healing for the youth, adults and families requesting cultural alternatives to healing and identity development.

When we talk about assimilation, we all share the same pain.

- Verlyn Long Wolf, Female Mentor
